TO AVERT SETBACK FROM SHIFT TO OPS

Govt may sweeten new pension plan

Guaranteed pension of 50% last-drawn salary

PRASANTA SAHU
New Delhi, February 14

WITH DEMAND GROWING for the old pension system (OPS) with assured benefits, the Centre and some state governments are exploring ways to salvage pension reforms, by treading a middle path between the fiscally-expensive OPS and the reform-oriented National Pension System (NPS).

One option being considered is to offer guaranteed pension to government staff at around 50% of the last pay drawn under the NPS by tweaking the existing scheme without burdening the exchequer too much. While OPS is based on the concept of defined benefits, the principle that underlie NPS is defined contribution.

Currently, under the NPS, also called new pension scheme, 60% of the accumulated corpus from contributions during a person's working years is allowed to be withdrawn at the time of retirement. Such withdrawal is also tax-free. The balance 40% is invested in annuities, which according to an estimate, could provide a pension equivalent of about 35% of the last pay drawn. However, it is not a guaranteed pension as returns are linked to markets.

Officials reckon that the NPS could be revised in such a way that at the time of retirement, an employee gets back her contribution of roughly 41.7% (built from a contribution of 10% of pay) as a lump sum amount. "An analysis showed that if the balance

IN THE SCHEME OF THINGS

58.3% corpus built from the central/state government contribution (14%) is annuitised, the pension in NPS could be around 50% of last drawn salary," an official aware of the deliberations in the government said. If actual returns work out to be less than the guaranteed amount, the gap could be bridged by the government concerned by contributing a little more to NPS, the official added.

AI lands 470-jet jumbo deal

Orders 250 planes from Airbus, 220 from Boeing

SWARAJ BAGGONKAR
Mumbai, February 14

IN A MOVE aimed at refurbishing the Air India fleet and turning around the ailing carrier, the Tata Group will buy 470 aircraft from Airbus and Boeing.

The deal is the largest in commercial aviation history with the Boeing order estimated at $34 billion and the Airbus transaction at around $35 billion. The agreement signed with Boeing includes options for additional purchases of 50 737 Max jets and 20 787s valued at additional $12 billion.

No full-fledged probe into Adani for now

SURABHI
New Delhi, February 14

THE CENTRE IS keeping a close tab on the evolving situation surrounding the Adani Group of companies, but is not looking at initiating a full-fledged official probe anytime soon, according to official sources. It will wait until the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) shares its findings after its ongoing examination of the concerns that have emerged in this regard, they added.

The ministry of finance as well as the ministry of corporate affairs are keeping themselves apprised of all the issues surrounding the Adani Group companies, said one of the sources privy to the developments. "Like in the case of any large corporate entity, the issue is being monitored at the highest levels. The regulators are already looking into the questions
